
Guitar and my woman

I thought I would post a quick message here to say how nice it is to hear the songs as they are being made in the next room.

A fine Canadian swamp rock singer songwriter

A true joy to hear Carolyn play her guitar, mandolin, resonator guitar, assortment of percussions, and piano (a few more but won't go on already).

I do remember Carolina's picking on the balcony of that big house in North Vancouver.

yes, I recall fondly those days - listening to Carolyn sing while exploring the latest and greatest mac toys.

good times chapytoutou.
